Staff Reports:

- Police Department ~
- Fire Department ~
- Parks and Recreation
- Road Report ~ Mr. McCullough discussed the roads that will being done this summer with Mercer County Joint Seal Program is with Martuccio. The road crew has started burming roads and will be mowing soon.
- Sewer Report ~ Mr. McCullough reported in from the Hermitage Sewer meeting that Hermitage would like to take over the sewer pump stations. M. Davidson would handle taking care of the residents with sewer.

Unfinished Business:

Mr. McCullough would like to purchase a truck & trailer for the sewer department. He will get quotes.

New Business:

Mr. McCullough discussed the salt contract how they have a storage fee if you can not take your allotted amount of salt. He said that we have 6 loads in the salt shed now and we have never had a winter that we've gone through 6 loads of salt. The supervisors are opting out of the salt contract for the up coming year.

Mr. McCullough discussed the twp. shop addition that the construction crew wants a 50% down the township has never paid-up front before. The supervisors decided to have the materials delivered to township and have a set start date then the township would pay the 50% down and rest when project is finished.

Mr. Burkett read the dates for the upcoming meetings.
